

STN e-Seminar in June 2019

Hi everyone,

STN is running the following e-Seminar in June -

Title: Introduction to the Derwent World Patents Index on STNNext®

Abstract: Discover the entry point to global patent information on STNNext! Derwent World Patents Index (DWPI) is the world's most comprehensive value-added database of international patent information covering all aspects of science and technology. In this e-seminar you will learn:

- What is the Derwent World Patent Index and why should I use it?
- Take a tour of a typical database record.
- Patent family information in DWPI.
- Search examples

This e-Seminar will be of interest to those new to DWPI on STN, and also to more experienced searchers looking to update and refresh their DWPI skills on STNNext.
